CV Ton Verlind

Ik heb me in 2008 gevestigd als zelfstandig strategisch en creatief adviseur.
In die functie assisteer ik organisaties die door de gewijzigde maatschappelijke omstandigheden de noodzaak voelen om hun beleid aan te passen. Ik doe dat volgens de concepting-methode.

Herpositionering KRO

Bij het maken van de nieuwe keuzes en de implementatie ervan kan ik bogen op een grote ervaring in de media. Lange tijd werkte ik in de complexe omgeving van de Nederlandse Publieke Omroep, bestaande uit 22 spelers. Als mediadirecteur gaf ik leiding aan de KRO en stuurde ik het proces, dat uitmondde in een succesvolle herpositionering van de omroep. De veelbesproken Madonna-imagocampagne van de KRO vormde een van de hoogtepunten.

Werkterrein

In 2008 richtte ik mijn eigen bedrijf op Ton Verlind Media BV en werd ik betrokken bij vergelijkbare processen in het middelbaar en het beroepsonderwijs en hoorden de vakbeweging, de jeugdzorg, de

Al-Mabhouh enters the lift with a member of hotel staff. Two Mossad agents follow disguised in tennis outfits

All four take a taxi to their hotel. Folliard grins at the desk clerk as she checks in. As the hours and minutes to murder tick away, she is seen flouncing around a luxury shopping mall, apparently without a care in the world, and returning to the hotel laden with carrier bags.

She even smiles flirtatiously and tosses her brown pony-tail towards her co-assassins, before she dons a wig and reappears with her hair in a thick, centre-parted bob.

Throughout the afternoon, the others fly in. Technical surveillance has shown that they never made direct phone calls to one another. Instead they dialled into a communications centre based in Austria using highly encrypted cyphers.

The task of the first wave is surveillance, and they change their appearance accordingly. When next we see Kevin Daveron, for example, he, too, is wearing a thickly-quiffed wig and is completely unrecognisable from the bald, stubbled man we saw before.

At 3.20pm we get the first glimpse of the victim as he goes through customs. Members of the surveillance team trail him from the airport to the Al-Bustan Rotana Hotel.

The victim is shown to his room by the hotel staff member, apparently unaware he is still

I work on the VIDI-project Logics for Intelligent Interaction: Expressivity and Succinctness funded by the Netherlands Organization for Scientific Research (NWO).

The project focussus on one of the prominent themes in logic today: intelligent interaction, which occurs in any social situation. There is a multitude of logical theories in this area to such an extent that for one and the same subject there is more than one approach. There is a great need to establish whether alternative approaches actually provide fundamentally different perspectives, or whether the differences are merely superficial. By focusing on the expressivity and succinctness of these logics, possible differences in their underlying conceptual frameworks are revealed, thus advancing our understanding of these conceptual frameworks and thereby of intelligent interaction itself.

From 2006 to 2009 I worked on the VENI-project Developing dynamic epistemic logic guided by old paradoxes and new techniques:

I am currently professor by special appointment on the chair of Logic and Argumentation established by the Stichting Groninger Universiteitsfonds at the Department of Theoretical Philosophy at the University of Groningen. I studied philosophy in Groningen and did my master's thesis on the so-called Monty Hall Dilemma under the supervision of Erik Krabbe and Rineke Verbrugge. This led to a PhD project in the computer science department in Groningen under the supervision of Gerard Renardel and Rineke Verbrugge. I finished my dissertation on probabilistic dynamic epistemic logic in 2003. After my PhD I worked as a postdoc at the Department of Philosophy on further topics within dynamic epistemic logic and related subjects. From 2006 to 2009 I worked on my NWO VENI project and starting in 2010 on my NWO VIDI project. In november 2011 I was appointed as a full professor on the special chair in Logic and Argumentation.

Michael Schwertel beschäftigt sich intensiv mit der Animation in verschiedenen Medien. Animierte Titelgestaltungen für das Kino, animierte TV-Werbung, Charakteranimationen für DVDs oder interaktive Anwendungen im Internet. Solange sich etwas bewegt und eine Reaktion beim User/Zuschauer ausgelöst werden soll, gehört es zu seinem crossmedialen Arbeitsspektrum. Auftraggeber u. a.: T-Com, Deutsche Bahn, ZDF, ARD, WDR, RTL, Sat.1, ntv, Bertelsmann. Während seines Studiums an der Kunsthochschule für Medien führten ihn mehrere Reisen nach Los Angeles und England zu Trickfilmstudios wie Disney, PDI und Sonypictures Imageworks. Nach seinem Studium hat sich der Diplom Mediendesigner sofort als freiberuflicher Animationsgestalter mit blurmedia (www.blurmedia.de) selbständig gemacht. 2007 gründete er die Trickfilmproduktion Power-Toons (www.power-toons.de), die eigene Stoffe und Gestaltungen crossmedial produziert und vermarktet.

MSc Logic 2000-2001

When I read the brochure of the logic programme before I applied here, I was impressed by the remark of one of the students, who wrote that the logic programme was situated "in a country with maybe the highest density of logicians in the world." I imagined then how it would be to live in a city where there is always the possibility of bumping into a logician in the next ... although (at least outside of the ILLC buildings) it is not quite like this, the logic programme and Amsterdam exceeded all ...ons of finding an ideal environment for delving deeper into the links between logic, language and computation, while ...esting people from all over the world at the same time. There is great freedom which courses to choose from an impressive ...ings. For me as a linguist with some logical background (which is something you need here!), the optimal choice was a ...thematical logic courses to strengthen my formal skills and exciting excursions into the dynamics of discourse and ...xchange; but the logic programme can basically fit anyone's need. I am an associate professor and Rosalind Franklin fellow at the Department of Theoretical Philosophy of the Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Groningen. I am also an external member of the Munich Center for Mathematical Philosophy and an editor for the Review of Symbolic Logic.
Here is my CV.
My main fields of research are history and philosophy of logic. I also have general interests in medieval philosophy, philosophy of psychology and cognitive science, philosophy of mathematics, general philosophy of science, philosophy of mind, and empirically-informed approaches to philosophy in general.
I am now (2011-2016) leading the research project The Roots of Deduction.
I also blog at New APPS and M-Phi.
Check here for my old Amsterdam website. (I leave it online mostly because it has such a nice design!)

Member of the COST Action "Transforming Audiences, Transforming Socieities"; the Research School for Media Studies (RMeS); the International Communication Association (ICA); the European Communication Research and Education Association (ECREA); and the Groningen Research Institute for the Study of Culture (ICOG).

Prior to my appointment as Assistant Professor of Journalism Studies and Media in August 2008, I lived in the cold confines of central Canada. My MA and PhD, both in sociology, were undertaken at Carleton University in Ottawa.
My eclectic academic background also saw me study journalism at Carleton University after completing a commerce degree from Queen's University. Outside my working life, I'm an avid traveller, be it Cape Town or Kampala, Marseille or Managua, Helsinki or Hanoi. There's nothing quite like feeling out-of-place.

Chris Peters is Senior Lecturer at the Centre for Media and Journalism Studies at the University of Groningen. His research investigates the changing experiences, conceptions and uses of information in the digital age and how this relates to issues of sociocultural understanding and societal cohesion. His publications include Rethinking Journalism (Routledge, 2012) and Retelling Journalism (Peeters 2014, both co-edited with Marcel Broersma), as well as peer-reviewed articles and book chapters on subjects ranging from the places and spaces of media use to contemporary understandings of democracy and mediated participation.

Work Experience

2008 – current University of Groningen (Netherlands) – Senior Lecturer,[1] Centre for Media & Journalism Studies

- Permanent position granted, 2009. This is the Dutch equivalent of academic tenure.
- Holder of University Teaching Qualification. Courses taught include: Research Module: Audiences & Everyday Life; Theoretical Specialization: Journalism & Political Culture; & Intro. to Media Landscape.
- Research focusses on the links and interplay between audiences, media, sociocultural and technological developments. Emphasis is on how this 'redefines' information and connection in a digital age.
- Currently undertaking projects on public participation and engagement with the media, the changing spatial and experiential facets of media use, media ecology, and journalistic role perceptions.
- Administrative responsibilities include: Degree Program Advisory Committee; Hiring Committees.
- Involved with curriculum and course development. Have acted as course coordinator for multiple modules, which involves managing teaching assistants and coordinating faculty responsibilities.

2002 – 07 Carleton University (Canada) – Research Assistant

- Worked for Prof. Pat O'Malley, Canada Research Chair in Criminology and Criminal Justice, assisting with The Currency of Justice (Routledge, 2009) & Risk, Uncertainty and Government (Cavendish, 2004).

2000 – 07 Carleton University & Queen's University (Canada) – Seminar Instructor/Teaching Assistant

- Courses included: Classical Sociological Theory; Intro to Sociology; and Business Decision Models.

2000 Australian Air Express (Australia) – Senior Credit Officer

- Worked in accounts receivable, dealing with reconciliation and auditing of clients.

1998 – 99 Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (Canada) – Account Manager Program

- Focussed on analyzing clients, preparing reports, and sales of mortgages, investments and loans.

Education

2005 – 09 Doctor of Philosophy in Sociology, Carleton University

- Degree granted June 2009; Dissertation: The Truthiness Factor: Blurring Boundaries and the Shifting Status of Objectivity and Emotion in Television News.
- Research concentrations: media studies, sociology of emotions, discourse analysis, cultural studies.

2003 – 04 Master of Arts in Sociology, Carleton University

- Thesis: Hate Expectations: A Narrative of the Conceptualisation of Criminal Hatred in Canada

2002 Master of Journalism, School of Journalism & Communication, Carleton University

- Completed the first year in good standing before transferring to sociology.

1997 – 2000 Bachelor of Commerce, Queen's School of Business, Queen's University

- Graduated with First Class Honours; Dean's Honours List 1998-2000.

[1] The UK job description of senior lecturer is probably the closest English translation to my official title, 'Universitair Docent 1', its profile, responsibilities, and qualifications. US academic titles are a poor fit for the Dutch system, which has far more levels and no 'tenure track'.

Samenvatting van Chris Peters
In August 2008, I was appointed Lecturer (Assistant Professor - US academic rank) at the Centre for Media and Journalism Studies at the University of Groningen. I was promoted to Senior Lecturer when the position was made permanent (i.e. tenured) in December 2009. The position involves lecturing, conducting research, grant applications, and supervision of Master's level students. My PhD in sociology focused on media studies, considering how emerging forms of broadcast journalism challenge what we 'think of' and how we 'experience' news. I am currently building upon this focus to see how the public spaces of news consumption and the role perceptions of journalists are also shifting.
Specialities: Media and journalism studies, with a broad awareness of sociology and communications theory.

Monika Schmid
Monika Schmid is Professor of English Language and Linguistics. Her research focuses on the development of bilingualism, in particular the acquisition of a second language and first language attrition. She has received various grants from The Netherlands Organisation for Scientific Research, among which a Veni grant for quantitative research into German among German immigrants in the Netherlands and Canada, and a Vici grant for her research into the influence of age on the development of neurolinguistic aspects of bilingualism. She has published books and articles on different aspects of L1 attrition, among which Language Attrition (Cambridge University Press, 2011) and (edited with Barbara Köpke, Merel Keijzer and Lina Weilemar) First Language Attrition. Interdisciplinary Perspectives on Methodological Issues (Amsterdam: John Benjamins, 2004).

Monika Schmid appointed Professor of English Language and Linguistics

Date: September 06, 2010

Dr Monika S. Schmid (Stuttgart, 1967) has been appointed Professor of English Language and Linguistics at the Faculty of Arts. This position follows her appointment as Rosalind Franklin Fellow (2007). Monika Schmid has established several projects in the area of language loss and language development. For her research she has received four NWO grants, most recently the award of a Vici subsidy and a programme in the Vrije Competitie for the arts and humanities.

Bilingualism and bilingual development

Monika Schmid specializes in research on contemporary English, especially the acquisition of English as a second language. In her work, she takes a broad international perspective on English as a contact language in the global context. In particular, her research focusses on all aspects of the development of bilingualism, particularly the acquisition of a foreign language and the loss of a first language among immigrants.

Monika Schmid

Language loss and language attrition

Monika Schmid is one of the leading international researchers in the area of first language loss among migrants (language attrition). Her work on the changing proficiency in a first language is internationally acknowledged. Monika has received a number of grants for her research, among them a Veni grant for a quantitative study of German spoken by German migrants in the Netherlands and Canada . Earlier this year she was awarded a Vici subsidy for an investigation into the influence of age on the development of bilingualism.

Age and bilingual development

Over the coming years, Monika plans to investigate questions relating to the importance of the age at which a second language is learned. It has long been assumed that age is an important factor in determining eventual proficiency in a foreign language. For the process of language attrition, age appears to be even more

Birkhoff - von Neumann Prize for logician Sonja Smets

18 July 2012

Sonja Smets of the Institute for Logic, Language and Computation is awarded with the Birkhoff-von Neumann prize for her studies on quantum structures and related epistemic semantics.

The Birkhoff-von Neumann Prize is awarded once every two years during the award ceremony held at the bi-annual conference of the International Quantum Structures Association (IQSA).
The candidates for the prize are selected by the IQSA prize committee for their outstanding scientific achievements in the field of quantum structures and the impact their work has on the research in quantum logic and quantum foundations.

Chris Heunen (University of Oxford) and Sonja Smets (University of

EEN VOORBEELD VAN POSTDOCTORALE MOBILITEIT: SONJA SMETS (VUB)

Voor de vooruitgang van mijn eigen onderzoek is internationale mobiliteit een belangrijk gegeven. In een nieuwe onderzoeksgroep leer je de zaken vanuit een ander perspectief benaderen. Iedereen heeft zo wel zijn eigen werkwijze en soms is net dat andere perspectief belangrijk om een nieuw resultaat te bekomen. In gesprekken met andere onderzoekers en tijdens brainstorm-sessies (en soms ook tijdens de discussies na een wetenschappelijke voordracht), kunnen er nieuwe verbanden worden gelegd en kan iedereen zijn ideeën eens toetsen. Op die manier krijg je toegang tot het soort van informatie dat je niet in boeken of wetenschappelijke tijdschriften kan vinden. Het is deze informatie waarvan je op voorhand niet met zekerheid kan zeggen of het wel relevant is voor je onderzoek, tot dat iemand het verband legt. De toegang tot deze informatie, bovenop de andere vakliteratuur, zie ik als een duidelijke meerwaarde voor mijn eigen onderzoek.

Spreekuur voor het onderzoekscollege: woensdag van15-16, kamer 379.

Dr. Huub Wijfjes (Delft, 1956) studeerde tot 1980 geschiedenis in Leiden en werkte daarna als historicus en journalist. In 1988 promoveerde hij op een proefschrift over radiocensuur: Radio onder restrictie. Overheidsbemoeiing met radioprogramma's, 1919-1941 (Amsterdam: Stichting Beheer IISG). Van 1991 tot 1994 was hij coördinator van de Postdoctorale Opleiding Journalistiek van de Erasmus Universiteit. Sinds februari 1995 is hij als onderzoeker en docent verbonden aan de sectie Journalistiek bij het Instituut voor Geschiedenis van de Rijksuniversiteit Groningen. Hier zette hij onder andere het programma van de Postdoctorale Opleiding Radio- en Televisiejournalistiek op.

Hij schreef boeken, artikelen en columns op het gebied van (sociale) geschiedenis, media, journalistiek, archieven en technologie. In 1989 richtte hij met andere redacteuren het Jaarboek Mediageschiedenis op, dat in 1997 werd omgezet in Tijdschrift voor Mediageschiedenis. In 1994 was hij samensteller en mede-auteur van een groot overzichtswerk van de Nederlandse omroepgeschiedenis: Omroep in Nederland. 75 Jaar medium en maatschappij, 1919-1994 (Zwolle: Waanders 1994). In 1996 schreef hij samen met anderen het jubileumboek van de IKON: Van geloof, hoop en liefde (Kampen: Kok). In 1998 schreef hij het jubileumboek: Het Stanislas. School- en jeugdcultuur op een katholiek college te Delft, 1948-1998 (Delft: Klats Publiciteit 1998).

Hij schrijft regelmatig artikelen, beschouwingen en boekbesprekingen voor de Volkskrant, De Journalist, Historisch Nieuwsblad en het Tijdschrift voor Mediageschiedenis. Momenteel werkt hij aan een omvangrijk boek over de geschiedenis van de Nederlandse journalistieke cultuur, dat in 2004 zal verschijnen ter gelegenheid van 125 jaar georganiseerde journalistiek in Nederland. In het kader van dit onderzoek was hij mede-organisator van het congres 'Journalistieke cultuur in de twintigste eeuw' (Amsterdam 26-29 juni 2000).

Enkele recente publicaties zijn:

- De afstand tot de vorst. Media en monarchie in historisch perspectief. In: Tijdschrift voor Mediageschiedenis 2/1998, pp.2-9

Marcel Broersma studeerde geschiedenis en journalistiek in Groningen. Daarna werkte hij enige tijd als freelance journalist en als redacteur binnen-/buitenland bij de Leeuwarder Courant. Sinds augustus 1997 werkt hij als aio bij de sectie Journalistiek. Hij bereidt een proefschrift voor over de geschiedenis van de Leeuwarder Courant (1752-2002). Dat concentreert zich vooral op de ontwikkeling van de journalistieke cultuur in 250 jaar en de veranderende rol van de krant in de (Friese) samenleving.

In 1999 publiceerde hij in het Tijdschrift voor Mediageschiedenis 'Botsende stijlen. De Eerste Wereldoorlog en de Nederlandse journalistieke cultuur'. Binnenkort verschijnt in BMGN 'De hand van Romme. C.P.M. Romme als staatkundig hoofdredacteur van de Volkskrant (1945-1952)'. Daarnaast schrijft hij regelmatig artikelen in de Leeuwarder Courant en het Historisch Nieuwsblad.

I am a historian, specialized in Media History. I am professor in History of Radio and Television at Amsterdam University. Since 1995 I am associate professor and researcher at the master programm in Journalism of the Faculty of Arts, University of Groningen in The Netherlands. This university was founded in 1614, the Journalism program in 1991.

My main interests are Journalism, Broadcasting and Media History. I've written extensively on these topics, especially in relation to political culture. Since 2005 I am a board member of The Kossmann Institute for Political Culture.

My latest research project is on the position of Editors in Chief in modern journalism. I also worked on a huge project concerning the history of the public broadcasting association VARA. This organisation was founded in 1925 and still is one of the leading broadcasters in the Dutch Public Broadcasting system. In september 2009 I published a book and a full swing multimedia historical website.

I studied History at Leiden University, the oldest university in The Netherlands (since 1574).

HUUB WIJFJES, DE BLOGGERS EN HET DAGBLAD

Geplaatst op: 31 maart 2006 | Auteur: groninganus Ik Hoort bij: Media IkEen reactie plaatsen

Huub Wijfjes, mediahistoricus en journalistiekdocent bij de RUG en straks geschiedschrijver van de VARA, heeft sinds dinsdag een weblog. De journalistieke pretenties van sommige webloggers vindt hij maar niets, en volgens hem slaat het Dagblad van het Noorden een volkomen verkeerde koers in.

In zijn openingsstukje haalt Wijfjes meteen al uit naar de webloggers die menen "dat ze de nieuwe journalistiek aan het maken zijn". "Ik ben zo vrij dat een misverstand te vinden", verklaart Wijfjes. "Het meeste en meest geconsumeerde nieuws (…) wordt nog gewoon gemaakt door de traditionele journalistiek…" En: "De meeste bloggers zijn maar met een flintertje van het rijke palet der journalistiek bezig, voornamelijk met het becommentariÃ«ren van nieuws dat door ouderwetse journalisten de wereld in geholpen is." De internet-nieuwtjes die de bloggers zelf genereren acht hij "zeker niet representatief voor wat er in de wereld gebeurt".

"Het geschreeuw op de vele weblogs en internetsites", aldus de journalistiekdocent, "verbloemt een veelal schrijnende overdaad aan geestelijke armoede. Het verbloemt ook blindheid voor wat er in het

https://eventbranche.blogs.com/eventbranche_weblog/2008/04/henri-smeets-c3.html

This man Henri Smeets works as a free lance Photograper in Amsterdam.
He was the first one who left the crime scene in Dubai and took the airplane to Europe.
I personaly think that this man was the big boss and the leader of the team who gave them the instructions.

About C360.NL

Self made photographer, specialized in panoramics. Previously a multimedia developer creating business presentations and cd-rom for museums. The early panoramas were made with compact camera's, these delivered nice cilindrical images but that wasn't enough so I invested time and money to go pro in the panorama field. C360.NL is the result.

15:30 Mahmoud al-Mabhouh is trailed by the two 'tennis players' as he walks to his room. After learning his room number, the team checks into the one opposite
It was a late-morning phone call from a concerned wife on January 20 this year that first alerted the Dubai police to the case of Mahmoud al-Mabhouh. She had been unable to reach her husband, who was travelling in Dubai on business. The news was of no interest in itself, but what made the police pay attention was the man's name - Mabhouh was a military commander in the Palestinian movement, Hamas.

AIVD-chef Rob B. mag niet naar Kamer van 'PvdA Fatsoenrakker Ronald Plasterk'.

(van onze Tweede Kamer Kroeg redactie)

Amsterdam-Noir- De SP is terecht boos op PvdA-Minister 'Grachtengordel-Fatsoensrakker Ronald Plasterk'van Binnenlandse Corrupte Geheime Zaken, omdat die de gewetenloze AIVD-Boss Rob Bertholee zou hebben verboden om te verschijnen voor een hoorzitting in de Tweede Kamer Kroeg en ing. S.K.A. Brown inzage te geven in zijn reeds 25 jaar oude AIVD-dossier.

AIVD Gangster Boss Rob Bertholee

SP-Tweede Kamerlid Ronald van Raak noemde het besluit dinsdag„onaanvaardbaar en extreem onfatsoenlijk".
Op initiatief van de SP houdt de Kamer op 11 september een 'gebral-hoorzitting' over de bezuinigingen bij de inlichtingendienst. De AIVD moet vanaf volgend jaar gaan bezuinigen en het vermoeden bestaat dat de AIVD nu zijn inkomens gaat aanvullen met het chanteren van (Pedo)-Politici en leden van het Koninklijk huis.

EC representative: Latvia has good government e-service level

LETA

April 6, 2011

(+2 of 2)

Paul Timmers

The level of the state administration e-service development in Latvia is sufficient and exceeds the average one in the European Union (EU), says Paul Timmers, the acting director of the European Commission's (EC) Information Society and Media Directorate-General (Directorate H), who is in charge of information and communication technology use in social problem solving.

The coefficient for fully available online services in Latvia makes up 93%. It already surpasses the average number in the EU – 82%. In the study, the sophistication of e-services provided for the people in Latvia hits 94%, while of services for business – 100%, Timmers indicates in an interview to the business portal Nozare.lv, when referring to the EC's research. The e-service sophistication is a somewhat subjective measure used in these studies.

Timmers explains e-services in Latvia have evolved along with their spread in other EU administrations and business development, with specialities in public administrations. He has a wide experience on project management and practical implementation on using ICT to modernise and re-engineer public administrations. He has been coordinator and regional project manager in many European projects (IST, EU R&D, Interreg, eContent)

Mr. Paul Timmers, Head of Unit H 3 ICT for Inclusion, Brussels. Include all by Internet! Europe has an active digital inclusion policy that has much evolved over the past years, as part of the i2010 information society agenda. From the Riga Declaration for e-inclusion in 2006 until today much attention has been paid to issues such as digital literacy, web-accessibility, and independent living of elderly and disabled person. Paul Timmers summarize achievements – and gaps! – in these areas and also highlight work in some less known areas such as migrants and ICT. He will then provide some reflections on future steps to realise the Riga e-inclusion objectives for 2010 and to go beyond them in order to prevent new digital divides opening up as the Internet and the information society evolve.

Rubin: U.S. Must Confront Warlords, Deal with Taliban
Interviewee: Barnett R. Rubin, New York University
Interviewer: Bernard Gwertzman, Consulting Editor

Barnett Rubin, a leading specialist on Afghanistan and the author of several books on that country, criticizes what he sees as the Bush administration's insistence on using its 17,000 troops in Afghanistan to fight a "war we cannot win" against the Taliban. Instead, he says, the United States should combine those troops with the NATO force of 6,500 to enhance nationwide stability.
Rubin, formerly the director of the Center for Preventive Action at the Council on Foreign Relations and now director of studies at New York University's Center on International Cooperation, says that, overall, "The question is whether the glass if one-tenth full or nine-tenths empty. We have a long way to go in Afghanistan." He was interviewed on July 14, 2004, by Bernard Gwertzman, consulting editor for cfr.org.
Afghan President Hamid Karzai, in an interview published in the July 12 New York Times, said he was more worried about the Afghan militias than he was about the Taliban. Is the glass in Afghanistan half full or half empty?

Thıs melanıe heard .
She contacted me at the www.muslıma.com websıte ıs a sıte for marrıage .At that tıme ı dıdn't knew she was melanıe heard . we talked and we spook outsıde. many tımes she asked me ıf ı would go wıth her to her brother ın cıty Eden.
And she told me that she wanted to go car lıften to get there.
I found 24 of the mossad ınterpol most wanted and stıll 3 persons left that ı was trackıng to fınd and she was the one of the 3 left.
after ı was convınsed that she was melanıe heard ı understand that ı was ın danger and why she kept askıng me to go wıth her car lıftıng to cıty of Eden .100 km from Cıty of Delft.
I was at her home to talk wıth her about marrıage and we where plannıng ıt and me goıng to lıve at here place fıllıng togheter the move form of the baladıa and then ı saw her pıcture next to her computer then ı realızed wher ı was gettıng ın to .a trap by mossad .

so ı went to the toılet and came back actıng ı feelıng sıck and have dıaree and was oncomfortble and want to go .
then she went to toılet and ı stolen/taken her Pıcture when she was 16 years .that's what was wrıten at the back of the pıcture.
Then ı scaned the pıcture and hamdoelıleh .

Her copy paspoort and the house contract for me to change my adres to her adres
